

CURATOR OF PUBLIC HISTORY

The Tampa Bay History Center is seeking a full-time Curator of Public History. This position serves in the lead role over the development of exhibitions and in the creation of textual, photographic, and artifact components for both temporary and permanent exhibitions and to insure they are consistent with the TBHC Strategic Plan for Programs. The position performs the research and writing of exhibition development and label copy and assists the education department with the creation of programs for in-house and outreach purposes. The position works directly with the Director of the Touchton Map Library and the Museum program staff in developing long-range plans for temporary exhibitions, potential changes and updates to the permanent galleries, and plans for the collection of artifacts, ephemeral materials, documents, and other materials as these directly relate to the mission of the TBHC.

Qualifications and experience

- Master's degree in history with an emphasis in Florida history; Ph. D. preferred
- Minimum of 5 years experience in the museum or academic field, 3-4 years of which are in the curatorial department or similar administrative experience in academia

Technical or administrative knowledge

- Excellent writing, communication, and presentation skills.
- Good working knowledge of museology terminology and practices.
- Ability to acquire new skills as they may be deemed appropriate.

Special skills and/or abilities

- Excellent professional ethics as stated in museum accreditation guidelines.
- Ability to accomplish goals while working with numerous priorities.

Salary

$85,000 Annually

Excellent benefits package for qualified candidates.

Submit your resume to Msteijlen@tampabayhistorycenter.org.

No telephone calls, please.

EOE